With my two year term as chair of the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation coming to a close, I am able to reflect on our collective achievements over that period of time. I draw great personal satisfaction from the continuing progress being achieved on behalf of our Jewish community.

During the past two years, the Foundation has continued to modernize its structure, in areas such as governance, board recruitment and development and donor services. We have continued to promote a sense of openness and clarity while also fostering a strategic approach to our future.

We have successfully developed a comprehensive business plan, along with our first-ever 5-year strategic plan, that will help further guide the Foundation in achieving its goals, providing us with measurable targets and an improved structure for the Foundation.

Thanks to the Saul & Edna Goldfarb B’nai Mitzvah Club, we continue to encourage our younger generation to open up B’nai Mitzvah funds as their entrance into what will hopefully be a lifetime of Tzedakah. We can take pride in ensuring the continuation of the G.J. Cooper Scholarship Award, promoting leadership, academic excellence and an interest in the Ottawa Jewish Community. I look forward to seeing future generations benefiting from such a commendable scholarship. I also hope this scholarship sets an example for other prospective donors to promote activities they believe strongly in.

Collectively, the 785 funds that make up our Foundation are very important to the future of our community, enabling us to support the important work on behalf of the Jewish people in Ottawa, across North America and beyond. However, we must not forget that our success is not only demonstrated when we establish a new fund; it is in the ongoing nurturing and growth of these funds. As our community grows, so too will our community’s needs. We must be ready to answer those needs. When we look back over the last few years, we can all take great pride in knowing that our mission continues to be met with ongoing determination and commitment.

Our incoming chair, Harold Feder and board will face the challenge of delivering the Foundation’s message to a wider audience while securing increased community participation in our activities. I am confident that Harold and his Executive will succeed in achieving its goals. I look forward to participating on the Executive in my capacity as Immediate Past Chair.

I want to thank the outgoing Executive and Board of Directors, as well as all the committee chairs and members for their time and energy devoted toward furthering the Foundation’s mission. These accomplishments would not occur without the support of our hard-working and dedicated staff, ably led by our President, Jack Silverstein. A special thanks to Francine Paulin for her tireless efforts.

I am confident that with your help, our Foundation will grow stronger, continuing to develop and maintain meaningful relationships with our donors as we prove worthy of their trust.
As Chair of the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation, I embark on this two-year journey as Chair of the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation, I am mindful of, and grateful for, the efforts of those that have come before me. Since I began my involvement on the OJCF Board in June of 1996, I have witnessed the tremendous growth of the Foundation, not just in assets but in maturity as an organization.

Over the last two years under Roger’s stewardship the Foundation Board has developed core governance principles and a strategic plan which will serve as a road map over the coming years. The process of transitioning from a passive, reactive organization to a strategic, proactive one continues. These changes are necessary to meet the challenges of difficult economic times and a rapidly changing charitable environment.

In the next couple of years a number of new themes will emerge. Foremost will be a more deliberate focus on donor objectives and wants. This will be married with the identification and packaging of community needs to create giving opportunities that match donor wishes.

At the same time we will be exploring ways to increase collaboration with the Federation in an effort to further improve our relationships with the donor community and beneficiary agencies. All of which will be pursued in an environment of openness and transparency to all our constituents.

We are on the precipice of a massive intergenerational wealth transfer. We are also in a community with untapped potential for endowment giving. These strategies are designed to capture the imagination of the donor community and take advantage of the opportunities that lie ahead.

I look forward with great excitement to the next two years working together with the Executive, Board, staff and you to continue to build a better Foundation to best serve our Jewish community.

Thank you for your continued support.
Just months before his 10th birthday, Colin Hughes died of an arterial vascular malformation. In his all-too-short life, Colin touched many lives from different traditions in many different countries. As the family prepared for his funeral in Ottawa from what had been Colin’s home in Manila until January 2008, questions arose: How do they deal with those wishing to send flowers or tributes in ways that are more in keeping with their cultural norms to Colin’s? How does one blend other people’s traditions with those of Judaism in a way would allow the memory of Colin to live on?

The OJCF offered a simple, eloquent solution. The family opened the Colin Hughes Memorial Fund, which became a living vessel through which Colin’s world could grieve, through which Colin could say thank you to CHEO’s First Words Clinic for its assistance and through which Colin could continue to give tzedakah to other very young children in need of the same type of assistance.

Leon’s prime motivation for opening a fund with the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation (OJCF) was to honour the memory of his late wife Ann.

Leon greatly appreciates the Ottawa Jewish community for its dedication to Jewish culture and religion. He is also thankful to our institutions, such as our Jewish day schools, the Bess and Moe Greenberg Family Hillel Lodge and Tamir, for helping those in need and making Ottawa a vibrant place for Jews to live and prosper. Leon staunchly believes supporting our community makes us better Jews and ensures that our community will continue to thrive.

Sarah and her late husband, Zeev Vered, came to Ottawa from Israel having served in the Haganah and Israel’s War of Independence where they developed a commitment to Jewish and humane causes.

After settling in Ottawa in 1956, Zeev and Sara became actively involved and supportive of a variety of institutions, such as the Ottawa Heart Institute and both the University of Ottawa and Carleton University. Zeev (z’l) led the UJA Campaign and Sarah was the second Chair of the Ottawa Women’s Campaign. So began the family’s long-standing tradition of supporting important causes.

One of those important causes includes The Vered Israel Cultural and Educational Centre which offers programs through the Soloway Jewish Community centre that highlights Israeli culture.

ENSURING COMMUNITY WELL-BEING AND GROWTH  TRUDA ROSENBERG

Truda Rosenberg was only 20 years old when her mother embraced her for the last time and whispered, “Don’t let anything happen to your Jewish soul”; these words left an indelible imprint on Truda’s heart and propelled her through life.

After fleeing the Lwów Ghetto in Poland, jumping off a train destined for a concentration camp and assuming different identities, Truda managed to survive the war and stayed true to her mother’s words. Truda’s “Jewish soul” continues to illuminate all that she does through her ongoing efforts to educate Jews and non-Jews about the Shoah.

Twenty-five years ago, Truda opened the Drs. Truda and Imre Rosenberg Educational Fund through the OJCF. The fund sponsors educational lectures called the Dr. Imre Rosenberg Memorial Lecture about Jews and Judaism, named in honour of her late husband.

For Josh Gordon, the apple did not fall very far from the tree. He grew up watching his parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles giving back to their community. So, when Josh was approaching his Bar Mitzvah in February 2008, it came as no surprise that, with his parent’s encouragement, he opened a B’nai Mitzvah Fund through the OJCF.

It was important to Josh that the money from his fund go towards an organization that assists people in need, regardless of who they are or what affiliation they have. He chose Ottawa’s Kosher Food Bank and, in his own way, continues the family tradition of giving back to the community.

Michael Walsh is a Jew by choice. His wife is a Jew by birth. Michael’s choice was predicated on wanting his family to experience the richness and support of community. They are Jews and being Jewish means being part of a community. Lisa is the third woman physician in Canada to undertake responsibilities as a mohel in the Reform Movement. She directs her mohel fees to our OJCF fund. Michael has facilitated Jewish leaders and boards in pursuing their goals of providing meaningful religious and community experiences for Jews in Ottawa. The community has given them many opportunities, and creating their fund is a tangible way of expressing their gratitude.
Our Dollars at Work Through Agency Programs

OTTAWA KOSHER FOOD BANK

A social action initiative of Agudath Israel Congregation, the Ottawa Kosher Food Bank has been in operation since 1997. Working with Jewish Family Services to identify clients in need, the Kosher Food Bank is able to assist 80 families (about 170 people) who are living below the poverty level in Ottawa. Primarily servicing members of our community who are suffering from physical and mental illness, seniors and recent immigrants, the Ottawa Kosher Food Bank ensures that they are able to continue to adhere to the laws of Kashruth, helping them maintain their Jewish identity.

The need for the Kosher Food Bank continues to increase. The current economic situation has resulted in a decrease in the amount of donations to the Kosher Food Bank and an increase in expenses. The Ottawa Kosher Food Bank received $7,582 from the 2008 OJCF disbursements.

OTTAWA JEWISH CEMETERIES

One of the more important Mitzvot in Jewish traditions addresses the principle of honouring the dead (k’vod hamet), and a burial society is one of the primary institutions of any Jewish community. Everybody is vulnerable to death’s intrusion, young and old, rich and poor, traditional and secular.

Following the recent formation of the Jewish Memorial Gardens, Ottawa finally has a community organization that is able to administer the two Jewish cemeteries and facilitate funeral arrangements, bringing together representatives of six Ottawa congregations and the community-at-large. The Ottawa Jewish Cemeteries received $18,497 from the 2008 OJCF disbursements. This funding helped the agency with the overall maintenance and upkeep of the cemeteries, as well as ensuring that any Jewish member of our community is provided with the opportunity for a proper Jewish burial.

TAMIR

Tamir’s mission focuses on the promotion of community living in a Jewish environment for adults with developmental disabilities in the Ottawa area. Through their Judaic Outreach Program, Tamir is able to offer life changing services in a wide variety of ways. It may be the services of their Residential Outreach program, offering a lifeline of support to semi-independent developmentally disabled adults living alone. It may be realized by the Keshet for Kids Summer and March Break Camp, a program for developmentally disabled children and youth that promotes participation in integrated and specialized religious, cultural and recreational camp programming during March Break and the summer months.

Or it may be a result of Tamir’s overall Judaic Outreach program, dedicated to assist people with developmental disabilities to learn about, practice and celebrate Jewish life by bringing Tamir into the community and the community into Tamir.

Tamir received $55,903 from the 2008 OJCF disbursements. As the only program in Ottawa dedicated to religious and cultural Jewish programming for individuals with developmental disabilities, OJCF is proud to support Tamir’s Judaic Outreach Program, which positively affects the lives of so many Jewish souls in Ottawa.

CAMP B’NAI BRITH OF OTTAWA

Since its inception in 1936, the primary mission of Camp B’nai Brith of Ottawa (CBB) has been to provide a summer camping experience for children regardless of a family’s ability to pay, a goal that continues to this day. Recent studies have shown that Jewish residential camping is second only to day school enrolment as a catalyst to continued Jewish affiliation.

CBB Ottawa received $10,253 from the 2008 OJCF disbursements and was able to increase its financial assistance program, which typically benefits 20-25 campers per year. The financial assistance program offers financial assistance to campers via full or partial scholarships assisting children who cannot otherwise afford a Jewish summer camp experience. The program allows them to spend time immersed in a Jewish environment, to make Jewish friends and feel attachment to the community.

The George Joseph Cooper Scholarship Award is a prestigious scholarship grant awarded annually to a chosen recipient selected by the Scholarship Committee through an application/nomination process. The scholarship was established in 2006 by the generosity of a donor, George Cooper, who left a substantial bequest to the OJCF for the purpose of supporting an outstanding individual between the age of 18 and 30 in furthering their post secondary education or apprenticeship in the artistic, literary or social sciences.

To date, three recipients have been privileged to receive the G.J. Cooper Scholarship Award. The OJCF has awarded a total of $44,378 in scholarships since the inception of the program (2006-2009).

The 2008 scholarship grant in the amount of $13,912 was presented to Davina Finn at the OJCF Annual General Meeting in June 2009. Davina is an undergraduate student in a 4 year program at Queen’s University in the Faculty of Arts and Science and achieved the Dean’s Honours List in her first year. She has received several awards over the years for her academic achievements and community involvement and is active with Queen’s Hillel.

The first annual scholarship grant was awarded to Ariel Goldberg who is aspiring to becoming a writer and Jewish educator. The second grant was awarded to Diana Cohen Reiss, a doctoral candidate who is writing a thesis on Jewish immigration in Ottawa. Complete scholarship details are available at www.OJCF.ca.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN 2008

A CLUB WHERE TEENS CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

The B’nai Mitzvah Club, founded in the year 2000 by Saul and the late Edna Goldfarb, was established to encourage lifelong habits of tzedakah amongst Bar and Bat Mitzvah teens by opening their own B’nai Mitzvah fund. Through the generosity of the Goldfarbs and their dedication to sustaining Jewish values, they funded a grant program to match donations of $250 up to a maximum of $1000 to assist youth in the community to open their own fund to support the local Jewish agencies that are most important to them.

From the 2008 OJCF disbursements, a total of $5,825 was distributed from B’nai Mitzvah Funds to 25 different beneficiary agencies.

We owe it to our future
The Or L’Atid flame, or light unto the future, announces to the Jewish world a woman’s commitment to the continuation of Jewish life.

Women who contribute $5,000 or more to their community’s Annual Campaign can establish a LOJE, ensuring perpetuation of her Lion of Judah gift. A LOJE gift is a commitment to the eternal well-being of the Jewish people and to a legacy that goes beyond her generation and her children’s.

Many options are available for endowing a Lion of Judah gift ($100,000 or more) such as a gift of cash, insurance policy naming the Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation as the beneficiary, bequest or transfer of stocks and bonds.

The Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation thanks the following women for their continued commitment as LOJE members in 2008.

“Joe and I believe in the Ottawa Jewish Community and the State of Israel. We also believe in the importance of a central agency like UJA. Endowing me as a ‘Lion for Life’ made a statement of our commitment, and of life as the gift was given while I was having chemo to fight Breast Cancer.”

The community acknowledges the ongoing support from funds provided annually by the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Endowment Fund. Allocations made from the fund in 2008 were $167,534.
The Ottawa Jewish Community Foundation provides donors the vehicle to contribute to the long term financial stability and support of the needs of the agencies which serve the Ottawa Jewish Community.

The Foundation acts as a steward for these gifts and link the past, the present and the future while building trust with everyone we serve.
